Functioning of a detective from the Public Safety Bureau in the Settlement.

At 12:15p.m. 30/4/34 Mr. Y.M. Cheng the Chief Clerk of the Continental Bank Ltd at 28 Tientsin Road and residing at 82 Tze To Loong of Kow Kow Di, Nantao with the assistance of C.P.W. 2128 brought to the Station one named Wu Tsch Ching (吳澤清) for creating a disturbance on the premises of the above Bank.

From Mr. Y.M. Cheng it was learned that about 11:30 a.m. Wu approached him in the Bank and asked whether he (Cheng) wrote the letter to ^{Government} Hanking containing information re arrival of some communist to Shanghai. On receiving negative answer Wu said that they are in possession of that letter and on being asked ~~that~~ when he meant "they" Wu stated that he was a detective attached to Special Branch of Public Safety Bureau, but refused to produce any documents of identification to that effect. Consequently Y.M. Cheng refused to answer any of Wu's questions. Then Wu said that "he" will fix ^{you} him in Nantao very soon". This was said in such a manner that Y.M. Cheng was compelled to refer the matter to the Police.

At the Station Wu produced his identification card issued by the Public Safety Bureau proving that he was honourable detective No. 318 attached to the Special Branch of the Bureau.

He also stated that he went to the Continental Bank to interview Y.M. Cheng in the course of his enquiries re the communist movements and that order to do so, he received from Mr. Liu Hwa i/c of the Special Branch of the Public Safety Bureau.

He explained the case as follows:-

A letter was sent to Nanking ^{Government} by some one who signed his name as Chang Yung Cheng residing at 52 Tse Ts Loong of Kuo Kuo Di, Nantao informing the Authorities that certain communist named Tong Tsing (佟清) recently arrived in Shanghai from Kiangsu Province.

This morning Wu visited the writer's address in Nantao and was informed that Y.M. Cheng could be seen in The Continental Bank. Wu denied creating disturbance in the Bank and also stated that he was not aware of the procedure that all enquiries in the Settlement when persons were to be interviewed must be made with the assistance of the Police District concerned.

D.O. "A" was communicated with ^{by} and ^{was} instructed to bring the matter to the notice of Mr. Liu Hwa and to ask him to send some representative who may identify Wu and to get all required particulars from Y.M. Cheng.

At about 4 p.m. one Chang Ching Tai detective Inspector of the Public Safety Bureau arrived and carried out all the necessary enquiries. At about 7 p.m. same date Y.M. Cheng came again to the Station together with a Mr. Tong Tsing a clerk employed by the Continental Bank.

1/sheet No.3.

who was transferred from the Tientsin Branch about four months ago. Tong Tsing's name was mentioned in the letter as of a communist who had arrived in Shanghai.

The both men stated that they strongly suspected one Tao Chi Yao being the writer of the letter and as the reasons for their suspicions they gave the following grounds that:-

(1) Tao Chi Yao was the only person amongst all the staff with whom they both were on very bad terms (2) The address of Y.K. Cheng mentioned in the letter could be known only to some one in the Bank and (3) That to Y.K. Cheng who saw the letter the handwriting appeared to be very similar to that of Tao Chi Yao's.

They also informed the undersigned that if it would be necessary they may supply the Police with Tao's handwriting for comparison.

The letter in question had been shown to Det. Inspt. Ross of Special Branch.

DS Belosheps. has been instructed to obtain specimen of Tao Chi Yao's handwriting for comparison of the City Authority will lend us the original letter
